Advancing Sustainable Waste Management

WTERT 2012 Awards Dinner

Faculty House, Morningside Campus

Columbia University

Thursday, October 18, 2012

Winner of the WTERT 2012 Award:

The magazine "Waste Management World" of the International Solid Waste Association.

The objective of the WTERT 2012 Award was to recognize a person or organization who made a significant contribution to Sustainable Waste Management during the first decade of the 21st century, worldwide. Several worthy nominees were considered and - Waste Management World was selected for

- Publishing hundreds of enlightening articles on all means for sustainable waste management.
- Being the most widely read waste management magazine in the world and the only one available gratis to everyone.

The WTERT 2012 Award is also a fit recognition of the contributions to the developing world by the International Solid Waste Association. The WTERT Award consists of an original bronze statuette by the famous Greek sculptor Dimitris Armakolas.

The Award will be received by Mr. Tom Freyberg, Chief Editor of Waste Management World
